

WELLS FARGO CUSTOMERS CAN FIGHT BREAST CANCER AT THEIR ATM

It's now easier than ever for Wells Fargo customers throughout Oregon to support the fight against breast cancer, thanks to the bank's ATM donations program.

Wells Fargo has added the Oregon and S.W. Washington affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure to the list of nonprofit groups on its ATMs. Wells Fargo customers can now give anywhere from one cent to $299.99 to Komen by simply pushing a button at any of Wells Fargo's 231 ATMs in Oregon.

The money raised will help Komen provide life-saving education, screening and support services in Oregon and S.W. Washington, as well as breakthrough research around the world.

The Komen organization joins five other organizations already a part of Wells Fargo's ATM donation program: Mercy Corps, Oregon Food Bank, Oregon Mentors, Start Making a Reader Today, and Freshwater Trust.

The customer is not charged any fee for using the service; 100 percent of the donation is sent to the nonprofit. The donation may be tax-deductible. The donor's ATM receipt serves as proof of the gift.
