LOOKING FORWARD TO A NEW YEAR

CEO, Andrew Asato

Looking back over the past few months at Komen, we have concluded many new 'firsts' when it comes to adjusting our event work and mission services. In August, we completed our first virtual MORE THAN PINK Walk and successfully reached our $300,000 fundraising goal. We thank all our participants who found creative ways to participate and support this effort from the safety of their local neighborhoods, rivers, and parks. We also completed a live-stream Happy Hour for the Cure to share Komen's accomplishments over the past year and to hear an inspiring message from Tai Harden-Moore, Komen's African American Initiative and DEI Manager, who is living with metastatic breast cancer...

Warmly,

Did you know?

November is National Hospice and Palliative Care Month. Palliative care centers on the management and prevention of symptoms and side effects related to cancer and its treatment, such as pain, nausea, and fatigue. Palliative care should be provided throughout all stages of breast cancer treatment.

MISSION

Program Highlight - Worship in Pink

This October, we celebrated 10 years of our Worship in Pink program with virtual activities. 42 volunteer Ambassadors from 17 churches either collaborated with us on a Saturday webinar or showed a Worship in Pink-produced breast cancer education video during their virtual Sunday Service. Learn more and view recorded presentations here.

Metastatic Breast Cancer

- Our MBC Dinner Series is virtual this year! Join us December 8th at 6pm as we talk about self-care during the combination of the holiday season and pandemic. Registration opens soon.
- If you are living with MBC and would like to receive emails specific to MBC resources and activities, email programs@komenoregon.org.
- Komen offers conference and events across the country. See the virtual event schedule here.

Treatment Access Program

We have funding available to help qualifying breast cancer patients get to treatment. The mileage requirement has been waived during the pandemic. If you are in treatment, click here to see if this is a program that could help you.

COMMUNITY FUNDRAISING EVENTS

Umpqua Dairy - November

From August through November, Umpqua Dairy is selling their Huckleberry Cheesecake ice cream. Yum! A portion of the proceeds from the sale of this ice cream will benefit Susan G. Komen Oregon and SW Washington.
